

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NORTH DAKOTA

In re:)

Bourbon Street LLC,)	Case No. 23-30246
d/b/a La Cantina, et al.)	Chapter 11 – Subchapter V
)
Debtors, Jointly Administered.)

NOTICE OF CESSATION OF OPERATIONS

Please take notice that over this past weekend, Gannett Peak LLC d/b/a La Cantina (“Gannett Peak” or the “Debtor”) generally ceased conducting business operations. Care has been taken to secure all personalty owned by the Debtor, with perishable food being removed so as to prevent rot but all other assets remaining in place.

Notwithstanding Gannett Peak having filed a plan of reorganization herein (DE #109), the Debtor is not in a position to seek confirmation of that plan in good faith and will not, at the currently scheduled hearing on December 5, 2023, ask the subject plan be confirmed. The Debtor will, instead, indicate an openness to (i) amending the plan, to be one of liquidation, focused on recovering monies through Chapter 5 claims (being cognizant of an agreement reached with one creditor, expressed in the current iteration of the plan), with an amended plan of liquidation to be filed within seven (7) days; (ii) having this case converted to Chapter 7; or (iii) having this case dismissed.

As was shared when Bourbon Street LLC indicated that it had closed for business, Gannett Peak wishes to express its gratitude to all involved in this bankruptcy case for allowing a productive, open, and encouraging environment in which to attempt reorganization. The efforts of this Honorable Court, the various attorneys in this case (together with their clients), and all other parties in interest are greatly appreciated. There is a sadness to this business having ceased operations but, equally, a profound thankfulness for the Debtor having been given a chance to make its business work.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: December 4, 2023
